

20.05.2020

Gergo Csáti

② a) The algorithm was designed using bubble sort

b) Memoization is a dynamic programming technique which is used to reduce the computing power needed to solve a problem where some computations are needed for multiple steps. Memoization means memorizing each result and next time when is needed, the computation doesn't have to be performed again.